

Brexit the Movie – watch it for free

The Campaign for an Independent Britain was one of the sponsors of this film and it received only its second public showing at our AGM on 14th May.

You can watch it for free here. So far, nearly 2.4 million people have watched it on line.

Still worth mentioning to people who do not understand what the EU project is all about or are unconvinced that life is far better on the outside.