

Now available: Brave new Europe by Mick Greenhough

Mick Greenhough, a Committee member of the Campaign for an Independent Britain, has recently published a book called Brave new Europe. Mick writes:-

"I was a committee member on Leave.eu in the run up to the referendum having studied the history of the EU for many years and wrote this book when it became very clear to me that either Remainers were deliberately lying to us or they did not have much idea what the EU is about. The few MPs I spoke to either had a very sketchy understanding of the EU with many blank areas of knowledge or were in a state of complete denial.

The voting public simply did not believe the BBC and the mainstream media who all appeared so biased against Brexit that it caused many to ask; why they are so pro EU?

Much of the information within this book will come as a surprise, even shock to new readers. When you have read it then form your own conclusion as to the nature of the EU and whether the British public were right to reject it."

The book normally retains at £10. 25, but is currently available at a special discounted price of £6.95 For more information, please see here.
