

Project Fear and the antidote

New deceptions every day

Tell us we shall have to pay

Billions if we do not stay

In the wretched European Union.

These liars, tell us, who are they?

Cameron, Osborne, Theresa May

Apparatchiks in the pay

Of the wretched European Union.

They warn us: "Brits, be very afraid

Because we will lose all our trade

If our exit e're is made"

From the wretched European Union.

These traitors, they begin to bore

And even threaten "There'll be war!"

If we ever shut the door

On the wretched European Union.

We'll lose security as well;

Britain to become a bombed-out hell
If we ever dare to yell,
“Stuff the wretched European Union!”

“Cultural life will wither away” –
(Pampered luvvies come to say)
Unless we vote that we will stay
In the wretched European Union.

Obama spouts his usual goo:
“Departure you will come to rue
When you’re at the back of the queue”
Outside the wretched European Union.

All these threats are a pack of lies
Like Pinnochio’s nose in size
And told by those conniving guys
Who love the wretched European Union.

None of this you should believe
From those who practise to deceive
Raise the flag and vote to leave

The wretched European Union.

Once out we'll trade with every nation

End uncontrolled immigration,

All that taxation and regulation

By the wretched European Union

Brits, cast off the superstate

Eurocrats have no mandate

If we remain we shall stagnate

Leave the wretched European Union!"
