

A revised estimate – the financial settlement with the EU

Since we published Anthony Scholefield's Futurus Briefing paper on the financial settlement with the EU, the author has undertaken some further research which has resulted in a revision to the original document. The revised version can be downloaded here.

It should be pointed out that the headline figures, suggesting that the EU owes us a refund, have not been revised, but extra background information, such as our realistic future pension liabilities, has been added.
