

The Single Market explained (Part 1): the latest Leave Alliance monograph

The Leave Alliance, of which the Campaign for an Independent Britain is a member, has produced a further Brexit monograph: Leaving the Single Market – Part 1

Alternatively, a full list of monographs can be found on this page of the Leave Alliance website.

There has been much debate about “Hard” and “Soft ” Brexit and whether or not we should stay within the Single Market. As this monograph shows, the issue is considerably more complex. It is not by any means a light read, but an extremely helpful and detailed explanation of what the Single Market actually is.
