

Support a proper military Brexit – sign this petition

If the UK is to separate fully from the EU, this must include cutting any ties with the EU's military which might compromise our ability to act independently.

In order to achieve this, the UK's independent military capacity must be retained. We therefore encourage our members and supporters to sign this petition, which calls for a halt to proposed cuts to the Royal Marines and the Royal Navy's amphibious assault ships

Photo by conner395

