

From your CIBUK – a TV-style documentary delivering the positive case for an independent United Kingdom

SHORT VIDEO :

If you ever feel the need to fight back, this is for you

The crowd-funding site we were using has just banned us. This merely emphasises what we're up against.

This week we wish to share some very important news with you and also to make a request

We are in the process of making a TV-style documentary delivering the positive case for an independent United Kingdom. We are doing so for three very important reasons.

1. To re-emphasise the positive case for an independent United Kingdom which is increasingly under threat
2. To rebut the negative case being made by the Rejoiner-Globalists who wish to drag us back into the EU

To take on issues such as net zero, open borders,

uncontrolled immigration, more lockdowns, gender politics, cancel culture, under-funded defence and the like

Impending Threat

In recent months, the Rejoiner-Globalist movement has been on manoeuvres, busily raising £100,000 to make a TV-style documentary to persuade the British public to abandon our newfound freedoms and re-join the EU.

Be in no doubt. Their pockets run deep and their allies are powerful. They are a formidable foe.

The good news is that CIBUK and Facts4EU are fighting back with a documentary of our own.

This is where you, dear reader, come in.

With your backing we can help rebut the claims of the Remainer-Globalists and those who would transform the fabric of this country beyond recognition.

In the highlighted promotional video below, CIBUK's Communications Director, Ben Philips, explains all about this exciting project and how you can help – and be part of the project too!

As CIBUK's Communications Director Ben Philips says :-

"It is our belief that this country's best days lie ahead of it, but there are powerful forces on the other side who do not share our vision – the Rejoiners, the globalists and those who would impoverish our country with draconian policies which the general public simply do not support.

"Well, we're going to fight back with our own TV-style documentary, packed with facts and interviews with senior politicians and other influential figures. Our documentary will promote the United Kingdom's prospects as a fully independent and powerful country with a great future ahead of it.

"With your help we can make a great documentary film to rebut all the false claims, to ensure the UK flourishes and takes full advantages of its new freedoms, and to stand up for the values which we believe the majority of the great British public support."
