CIBUK - PRESS RELEASE IMMEDIATE, Friday 14th April, 2023

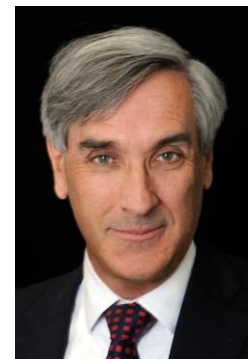

Liz Truss lets it out – no holds barred

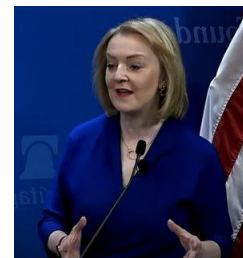

In a compelling lecture to the Heritage Foundation in Washington, the former Prime Minister fires both barrels in her defence of economic and political freedom.

“Liz Truss rightly returns to her theme of the need for growth,” says former Secretary of State the Rt Hon Sir John Redwood MP, speaking exclusively to CIBUK.Org.

“She talks openly about the anti-growth coalition which overwhelmed her as Prime Minister. She links it in to the great struggle in the modern world as global politics splits into two blocs, a Chinese led one and a US led one.”

“It’s over 30 years since the end of the Cold War and I think we all remember how it felt at the time:” - says former Prime Minister the Rt Hon Liz Truss MP, speaking to us exclusively from Washington DC - “the excitement that we felt; the hope that we felt that freedom and democracy had won.”

“But we have to ask ourselves how do we feel now. Do we feel freer? Do we feel that free enterprise has triumphed? Do we feel that we are able to say what we think in an open society? And I’m afraid the answer to all three of those questions is no.”

The former PM's speech in the USA on Wednesday is starting to make waves. From criticising US President Joe Biden, French President Emmanuel Macron, and by implication the EU Commission President Ursula von der Leyen, to her attacks on President Putin of Russia and President Xi of China, she did not hold back.

CIBUK - The Campaign for an Independent Britain – the oldest-established organisation for independence, sovereignty, democracy and freedom in the UK (founded in 1969) - has published Liz Truss's US speech, together with her additional comments to us, as well as publishing the exclusive comments of former Secretary of State Sir John Redwood MP.
