

‘Pulling in the big hitters with your CIBUK’

Dear Subscribers

It is not often one can boast two exclusives in one week, but we are delighted to share them both with you in this newsletter. The first is a hard-hitting, no-holds barred interview with the leader of Britain's insurgent Third Party.

The second is a high-profile appointment to the CIBUK board which can only raise our standing still further as we continue to shape the public agenda in accordance with our long-stated beliefs.

Richard Tice of Reform UK held nothing back in his 3-part interview with our Chairman which we cover in some depth below.

On the high-profile appointment, we delighted to announce Lord David Frost as a patron to the board of CIBUK. Lord Frost remains a hero, indeed an icon, to many Brexiteers and his public endorsement of our campaign is hugely appreciated.

Elsewhere we continue to promote the work of our affiliates which this week we have classified under 'immigration, identity and independence' - key themes that are set to dominate the political landscape for years to come.

‘The Ticeman cometh’

Our Chairman is to be congratulated for landing the interview of the year with the leader of Reform UK, Richard Tice. In a wide-ranging, fast-paced, no-nonsense exchange, the leader of Britain's Third Party laid out his party's vision for a bold and better future, addressing head-on the concerns of millions who are worried sick at the direction in which this country is heading.

From crime and immigration to education and energy, Reform UK's leader tells it like it is in a way which will resonate with voters up and down the country.

For maximum viewability we have split the interview into three.

Part I – Immigration & integration, stopping the boats, tax & the economy, freedom of expression

Part II – Energy costs and security, defence, Northern Ireland, education

Part III – Crime, NHS, education, housing, extreme Islamists, Hamas, why vote Reform UK?

CIBUK welcomes Lord David Frost as a new Patron

Baron David Frost

CIBUK are delighted to announce that Lord Frost has accepted our invitation to become a patron of CIBUK. He joins a distinguished list of fellow Peers of the Realm as well as Members of the House of Commons.

We look forward to working closely with Lord Frost in promoting the principles of sovereignty, democracy and freedom upon which our movement is based.

‘Immigration, Identity and Independence.’

How our institutions are failing the United Kingdom

In these uncertain times we are grateful for the inspirational work of our affiliates in drawing attention to the most pressing issues now facing the country.

Whether it be legal or illegal migration, the dangers to free speech or the ever-present threat of EU encroachment, we pay tribute to our fellow campaigners for their courage and honesty in tackling those issues head on.

We list a selection of recent affiliate articles on subjects of the utmost importance. Britain is in the midst of an existential crisis and it is vital we continue to highlight the dangers we are all now facing and bring them to the attention of our followers.

1. Immigration

‘Almost unbelievable – ‘Open Doors’ Britain lets 3.4m people flood in’ Record numbers have been granted work visas – 3.2 times pre-COVID levels

Is it any wonder people are so exasperated when they hear news like that? We are indebted to Brexit Facts4EU.Org for bringing this matter to our readers’ attention.

‘Mass immigration into the UK – the latest shocking figures’ – An addendum

So strongly do we feel about this issue, that your editor wrote an editorial on the subject which can be read in full in the link below.

2. Identity

‘Overhauling our global institutions – beginning with the ECHR’

Another worrying development is the growth of the unelected state and the extent to which our institutions promote their own agenda with little regard for those they are supposed to represent.

In this case we are grateful for the work undertaken by Martin Howe KC in exposing the corrosive operation of the European Court of Human Rights.

“For years, the judges in Strasbourg’s European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) have in effect been making up laws to suit their own agenda and belief system.”

3. Independence

‘Strangled by red tape – why on earth would Britain wish to rejoin the EU?’

Astonishingly, the UK has escaped 94,000 new EU laws and regulations since leaving the EU. We are grateful to Brexit Facts4EU.Org in drawing this fact to our attention. The full report can be found in the link below.

4. Institutions

The European Union has a mountain of problems of its own. But much needs fixing here at home. ‘Broken Britain’ is a phrase that is commonly used about so many aspects of our daily life – not least our political system, as Michael Woods points out in an article for The Bruges Group.

CIBUK is the oldest-established organisation of its kind in the United Kingdom. We are entirely dependent on the generosity of supporters like you.

2024 promises to be a pivotal year, not only here, but across Europe and in the United States. We will of course stay on top of the major developments as they occur and continue to bring them to your attention in future newsletters.

With all best wishes,

Ben Philips,
Communications Director, CIBUK.org
